

I listen to K-LOVE on my local radio every day. It is uplifting and encouraging. It would be a great disservice to our community if we were not able to hear the music as well as the christian encouragement it provides. K-LOVE is a safe and kid-friendly station and it would be in the public interest for them to continue on the air. Thank you